

Lindsey's wish to meet the Jonas Brothers

17 year-old Lindsey is counting down the days until she and her family will fly out to Los Angeles to meet heart throb, musical sensations, The Jonas Brothers. Next Thursday, December 11, Lindsey and her family will fly out to Los Angeles for what will be the experience of a lifetime. Due to the popularity of the Jonas Brothers, Lindsey will be meeting the guys as part of a group wish. Lindsay and the other families will have a group lunch with the Jonas Brothers. Once lunch has concluded, the Jonas Brothers will spend 20-30 minutes with each wish child chatting and signing memorabilia. Lindsey is also looking forward to spending a day at Universal Studios and checking out the area sights and shopping. We look forward to sharing pictures from Lindsey's wish once she returns. Thank you for your continued support of our mission!
